Storyboard Template

Digital Learning Resource: Storyboard

Document Objectives

- This document (storyboard) gives the “instructional” representation of the page level content and its representation.
- This document also contains the standard templates to be used for development of the eLearning courses.
- It also gives the page level audio transcript (wherever applicable). The same would be used to record the audio.
- Terminal learning objectives show the objectives of the course.
- The general comments area poses queries that require comments from developers, clients, reviewers and/or SMEs.
